DR. RON ELFENBEIN FOR STATE SENATE OUTRAISES INCUMBENT 30th District Candidate Shows $49,036 in New Support

ANNAPOLIS - The Ron Elfenbein for State Senate campaign has raised more than $49,000 since January 2010 thanks to small business owners, Republicans, Democrats and Independent voters throughout Anne Arundel County.

Upon learning of the news that his campaign had raised more money than the incumbent this reporting period, Dr. Elfenbein said, "I knew we were doing very well, because we can feel support growing every day- but I had no expectation of out raising a 27 year incumbent. This is a welcome surprise, and I believe it reflects the momentum our campaign is gaining as voters recognize that it's time for new leadership in the State Senate."

Dr Elfenbein continued, "Anne Arundel County voters are very engaged, and they are tired of seeing their elected officials vote for irresponsible budgets, tax increases, and more layers of government bureaucracy. They know that the pressing issues on the table such as enacting real, meaningful health care reform and balancing the budget, getting Marylanders back to work, and helping small businesses thrive require smart, principled public servants unbound to special interests."
