ECONOMY DOWN, PRESSURE UP?

Dr. Ron Elfenbein To Offer Free Blood Pressure Screenings

ANNAPOLIS - Dr. Ron Elfenbein will be on location at local grocery stores to offer free blood pressure screenings. Dr. Elfenbein spends his time working as an emergency room doctor, and wants to provide this valuable screening service to the residents of Maryland.

Dr. Elfenbein stated, "High blood pressure is a silent killer that can lead to heart disease, stroke and other health problems." He continued, "I see many patients wait until it is too late, and I want to help the residents of my district before they meet in the ER."

Dr. Elfenbein hopes that Marylanders will stop by during their shopping trips, and take advantage of the free blood pressure screening and the opportunity to speak with Dr. Elfenbein.

Dr. Elfenbein will be at these locations on these dates.
